

Discrimination is Against the Law

Heritage Health complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex (consistent with the scope of sex discrimination described at 45 CFR § 92.101(a)(2)). Heritage Health does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Heritage Health:

Provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats

Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact 208-620-5250.

If you believe that Heritage Health has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with: Civil Rights Coordinator by mail at P.O. Box 1387 Hayden Idaho, 83835, via phone at 208-620-5250, by fax at 844-807-3782, or via email CivilRightsCoordinator@myheritagehealth.org.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office of Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>
